GENITAL MUTILATION OF CHILDREN: TORTURE AND CRIMES AGAINST HUMANITY

James W. Prescott, Ph.D. \(2009\). Letter to Attorney General Eric Holder August 27. Calls for a Declaration that the Genital Mutilation of Children is an Act of Torture within the definitions of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and U.S. Law; Declares that the Genital Mutilation of Male Children DEMANDS "Equal Protection of the Law", as provided by the 14th Amendment and that gives the same protection given to female children under PL 104-208, which declares female genital mutilation (FGM) a crime; and pursue a "Bodily Sovereignty" Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, as proposed by Barbara Honegger...

Plus supporting documentation on the genital mutilation of children with copies to President and Michelle Obama; DHHS Secretary Sebelius and Secretary of State Clinton.

Department of Justice letter of 11 September 2009 in reply to letter to AG Holder, Jr of 27 August 2009 by Dr. Prescott, which rejects responsibility for "the issues raised your letter can best be answered by the Department of Health and Human Services".

James W. Prescott, Ph.D. (2009). Letter of reply to AG Holder, Jr. September 20. Rejects Department of Justice position of non-responsibility by the DOJ. Dr. Prescott stated: "I strongly disagree. The issues that I have raised are legal and Constitutional in nature that requires action by the Department of Justice, not the DHHS." A request that the DOJ address the relevance of the 14th Amendment and Judge Flaherty's 1978 OPINION were made.
